

BRIEF FOR RESPONDENT

You are the legal representative for the Australian Postal Corporation, the respondent in this application.

Ms Bennett has made an application to the Tribunal for a review of the decision of the respondent to deny liability to pay compensation for the condition of depression reported to the respondent on 14 December 2006.

The legislation relevant to this appeal is the Safety, Rehabilitation and Compensation Act 1988. Please note that the injury has occurred before 13 April 2007.

From the information provided, you must prepare and present argument to the Tribunal as to why the respondent should not be liable to pay compensation for the injury.

Your argument should be in the form of closing submissions. You should cite any relevant provisions of the legislation and case law (if applicable) to support your argument.

You should restrict your submissions to issues arising from the facts.
