INFORMATION ABOUT THIS FORM

WHAT DO WE DO WITH INFORMATION GIVEN TO US?

We collect information from you to process and consider your request under the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975.

We give a copy of the form to the department or organisation that made the decision you want reviewed. We may also give a copy to any other person that is a party to the review. If you give us other information that another party does not have, we will usually give them a copy.

Limited information about cases in the AAT's General Division, Freedom of Information Division, National Disability Insurance Scheme Division, Taxation & Commercial Division or Veterans' Appeals Division is usually made available to the public on request and can be accessed using eCase Search on our website. This information includes the names of the parties and any representatives, the type of application, dates of conferences, hearings or other case events, the types of key documents lodged by the parties and the outcome of an application.

More information is usually made publicly available if we hold a hearing and make a decision. If we prepare a written statement of the reasons for our decision in your case, it will usually be made public and published on the internet, including on the AustLII website (www.austlii.edu.au). For more information about the decisions we publish, see our Publication of Decisions Policy on our website.

We can order that information be kept confidential if we believe there is good reason to do so. You can apply for an order by writing to us stating what information you want kept confidential and why. In some cases, legislation requires that information be kept confidential.

For more information see our fact sheet, Privacy and confidentiality at the AAT, and our Privacy Policy. Our Privacy Policy includes information about how you can access and seek correction of your personal information, make a complaint about the way we have handled your personal information and how we will deal with such a complaint. Privacy and confidentiality at the AAT and our Privacy Policy are on our website or are available from your local AAT registry.
