Information on making an application for review - Migration

(For persons not in immigration detention and for organisations)

You can use this form (M1) if you are a person who is not in immigration detention, or if you are an organisation, to apply for review of a decision relating to a visa except for a decision about:

- a protection visa or protection findings
- cancellation of a business visa under section 134 of the Migration Act 1958
- refusal or cancellation of a visa on character grounds under section 501 of the Migration Act, or
- non-revocation of a visa cancellation under section 501CA of the Migration Act.

If you want to apply for review of a decision described in (a), (b), (c) or (d), you must use a different form which you can find on our website (www.aat.gov.au). Contact us on 1800 228 333 if you are not sure this is the correct form.

Please read all of the information pages in this form before you start to fill in the application form (pages 1-14).

You must complete this form in English. If you are completing the form by hand use blue or black pen.

You may use an interpreter to assist you. See 'Information in other languages' at the end of these information pages if you need assistance in your language.

You should complete all the details requested in this form. If you do not have enough space for all of your information, you can write the information on a separate sheet and attach it to your application.

Who can apply for review?

The Migration and Refugee Division of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal (the AAT) reviews certain decisions made by the Department of Home Affairs (the Department). The Department's letter providing notification of the decision will specify whether the decision can be reviewed by the AAT and who may apply for that review.

In this form 'you' refers to the review applicant. The review applicant(s) is the person or persons or organisation who is seeking review of the Department's decision. The visa applicant(s) is the person or persons who are the subject of the Department's decision.

Can an application cover other family members?

Generally, members of a family unit who are named as visa applicants in the Department's decision can be included in the one application form (a combined application). Please note that applications for review of decisions to cancel two or more visas cannot be combined. Please contact us if you need further information.

When should I apply for review?

There are strict timelines for applying for review. You must lodge your application for review within the time limit referred to in the letter from the Department notifying you of the decision. If you do not apply within the time limit, we will not be able to consider your application for review. We do not have any power to extend the time limit.

Dealing with the AAT

You can deal with us directly or you can appoint someone to represent you and act on your behalf in relation to your application.

If you choose to appoint a person to represent you, this person is known as your representative. If you appoint a representative, they can:

- communicate with us on your behalf
- give us written evidence and written submissions on your behalf
- request access to documents relating to the review, and
- attend a hearing with you (but cannot present oral arguments unless the Tribunal Member permits this).

Under the Migration Act 1958, only certain people can provide 'immigration assistance'. They include:

- a registered migration agent
- an Australian lawyer who holds a practising certificate
- a close family member (your spouse, child, parent, brother or sister), or
- a nominator or sponsor if you are a visa applicant.

'Immigration assistance' includes where a person uses their knowledge or experience in migration to assist you to prepare for, or represent you in, an application at the AAT.

Only a registered migration agent or an Australian lawyer with a practising certificate can ask you to pay a fee for providing immigration assistance.

By law, all persons acting as migration agents in Australia must be registered with the Office of the Migration Agents Registration Authority (Office of the MARA).

You can check whether a migration agent is registered on the Office of the MARA's website (www.mara.gov.au).

More information about who can help you with your application can be found on the 'Assistance' page on our website.

Corresponding with the AAT

Where will correspondence and other documents be sent?

You can choose to have all correspondence/documents sent to you or you can authorise a person (known as the authorised recipient) to receive correspondence/documents on your behalf in connection with the application.

If you appoint a representative in relation to your application, we will assume you are also authorising that person to communicate with us and receive correspondence/documents on your behalf in connection with your application. Any correspondence/document that is sent to your representative or another person you authorise in writing will be taken to have been given to you.

In cases where more than one person applies for review, all correspondence/documents will be sent to the person identified as Person 1 in the application form unless we are notified otherwise in writing. Person 1 should advise all other applicants of any correspondence/documents from us.

If Person 1 has appointed a representative or authorised recipient then we will regard that appointment as applying to the other people named as review applicants in the application form unless we are notified otherwise in writing.

How will the AAT send correspondence/documents?

We may send correspondence/documents by email, by fax or by post.

What will it cost to apply for review?

An application fee of $3,000 is payable except when applying for review of a bridging visa decision (including any related decision to require a security bond) that resulted in a person being placed in immigration detention.

The fee may be reduced by 50% (or 50% will be refunded if the full fee has been paid) if we are satisfied that payment of the fee has caused, or is likely to cause, severe financial hardship to the review applicant. Form M11 Request for Fee Reduction is available from any registry or from our website. Supporting documentary evidence is required for all fee reduction applications.

Where a fee is payable, you must either:

- pay the full application fee, or
- pay 50% of the application fee and lodge a fee reduction application with us, before the deadline for lodging the application for review.

If a favourable decision is made in your case, we will refund 50% of the application fee if the full fee was paid. If you withdraw your application, we can only refund your application fee in very limited circumstances.

How can I pay the application fee?

Payment can be made by cheque, money order, EFTPOS or credit card (Visa or MasterCard only). Cheques should be crossed and made payable to the 'Administrative Appeals Tribunal'. (Payment is not considered to have been made if a cheque is dishonoured or a credit card payment is not approved.)

How will the information that I provide to the AAT be used?

As authorised under the Migration Act 1958, the information provided to us will be used to assess your application for review and may be used in connection with other purposes relating to the administration of the Migration Act. Any information provided to us during the review process by you or by other parties may be provided to other participants in the proceedings or to other individuals or organisations for the purpose of reviews conducted under the Migration Act. For example, we may seek an opinion, information or records from an organisation or person as part of the review.

In certain circumstances, we may also provide information relevant to your application for review to, or obtain information from, other government agencies or other entities. These include but are not limited to the Department, the Office of the MARA, courts and law enforcement agencies.

Information provided to us may become public during a hearing. Hearings are usually open to the public.

If we prepare a written statement of the reasons for our decision in your case, it may also be made public and published on the AustLII website (www.austlii.edu.au).

For more information, see our Publication of Decisions Policy on our website.

In providing personal/sensitive information to us, you are taken to have given consent to the collection, use and disclosure of that information for the purposes above.

Further information about our privacy policy and how to make a complaint about a privacy breach is on our website.

What laws protect my rights and prevent misuse of my personal information?

The AAT is bound by the Privacy Act 1988, the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975, and the Migration Act in relation to the collection, storage, use and disclosure of personal/sensitive information. You have a right to have your personal/sensitive information handled in accordance with the law.

Can I access documents containing my personal information?

Under section 362A of the Migration Act, you can apply for access to any written material, or a copy of any written material, given or produced to the AAT for the purposes of the review. Such applications are subject to, among other things, the provisions of the Privacy Act. You can use Form M16 on our website to make an application under section 362A.

Access to documents held by us can also be obtained under the Freedom of Information Act 1982. Under this Act, you can apply for access to documents containing your personal information or seek to amend or annotate personal records which are incomplete, incorrect, out of date or misleading. You can use the Request for access to documents under the FOI Act form on our website for this purpose.

How do I lodge an application for review?

Applications for review using this form can be lodged by email, by post, by fax or in person. Available options are set out in the table on the next page.

An application for review using this form is taken to have been lodged with us at the time that it is received by us.

If you want to apply online, which is a convenient 24 hour, 7 days a week service, go to www.aat.gov.au.

What happens once I lodge the application for review?

We will send you a letter confirming receipt of your application and inviting you to send any documents, information or other evidence you want us to consider. All documents that you provide that are not in English should be translated into English by a qualified translator. You should provide both the documents and the translations. We will also ask the Department to send us relevant documents relating to your case. For further information on the conduct of reviews, please refer to our website.

Changes to your contact details

While we are dealing with your application, you must immediately advise us, in writing, of any change in your contact details (including changes to your residential (home) address). You should also advise the Department of any change in your address or other contact details. If you are unable to collect your mail, you should arrange for someone to collect your mail on your behalf.

You must also inform us immediately in writing if:

- you change your authorised recipient or representative, or cancel your representative's authority to act on your behalf, or
- the contact details of your authorised recipient or your representative change.

If we do not receive a response to important correspondence we send you, your case may be decided without further notice.

Part J – Declaration

This form should be signed by each person, or organisation, applying for review.

Note 1: Where you are unable to sign the form in person, you may instruct another person (e.g. Person 1 or your representative) to sign the form for you. You must read the declaration or have the declaration read to you, before the form is signed.

Note 2: If the person applying for review is under 18 years of age or lacks legal capacity to sign on their own behalf, the form should be signed by a parent or guardian on that person's behalf.

Note 3: The provision of false or misleading information is subject to penalties under the Migration Act 1958.

26 I declare that:

- I understand the information supplied to me in this form and in the information pages, and the information I have provided in this form and any attachments is complete and correct in every detail, and
- I consent to the AAT collecting personal/sensitive information about me from the Department of Home Affairs and other government agencies, entities, persons or publicly available sources, where that information is likely to be relevant to this review, and using it for the purposes of this review, and
- I consent to the personal/sensitive information that I provide to the AAT, or that the AAT collects from other sources about me, being collected and used for purposes relating to the Migration Act 1958, and
- I consent to any information/documents that I provide to the AAT, or that the AAT collects from other sources about me, being given to the Department at the end of the review, including personal/sensitive information, and
- I will inform the AAT of any changes to my circumstances (e.g. marital status, changes to my family composition) while my application is being considered, and
- I understand that if I change my contact details and do not inform the AAT of my new address or other new contact details, the AAT may proceed to make a decision about my case even if it cannot contact me, and
- if this application includes more than one person, I undertake to inform each other person of the contents of any communication from the AAT.
