

APPENDIX 6: APPLICATION FEES

APPLICATION FEES AND REFUNDS

The rules relating to the fees that are payable to lodge applications with the Tribunal are in the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Act 1975 and the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Regulations 1976. The primary rules for the payment and refund of fees are in regulations 19 and 19AA of the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Regulations. Subject to the exceptions described below, an application fee is payable for lodging an application:

- for review of a decision
- for a decision on whether a person was entitled to be given a statement of reasons for a decision
- for a declaration, under the Freedom of Information Act 1982, that a statement of reasons for a decision is not adequate.

If an application is not accompanied by an applicable fee, the Tribunal is not required to deal with the application unless and until the fee is paid. If the fee is not paid within six weeks after an application is lodged, the Tribunal may dismiss the application under section 69C of the AAT Act.

APPLICATION FEE AMOUNTS

The standard application fee in 2013–14 was $816, and the fee to lodge an application in the Small Taxation Claims Tribunal was $81. From 1 July 2014, the standard application fee is $861, and the fee to lodge an application in the Small Taxation Claims Tribunal is $85.

APPLICATION FEE NOT PAYABLE

Applications for review of the following types of decisions do not attract a fee:

- any decision specified in Schedule 3 to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Regulations
- any decision under the Freedom of Information Act made in relation to a document that relates to a decision specified in Schedule 3 to the Administrative Appeals Tribunal Regulations.

Schedule 3 includes decisions in the areas of family assistance and social security, the National Disability Insurance Scheme, veterans' affairs and workers' compensation.

REDUCED APPLICATION FEE PAYABLE

A reduced application fee of $100 is payable instead of the standard application fee if the person liable to pay the fee is:

- granted legal aid for the matter to which the application relates
- the holder of a health care card, a health benefit card, a pensioner concession card, a Commonwealth seniors health card or any other card that certifies entitlement to Commonwealth health concessions
- an inmate of a prison, in immigration detention or otherwise lawfully detained in a public institution
- a child under 18 years
- in receipt of youth allowance, Austudy payment or benefits under the ABSTUDY Scheme.

The Tribunal can order that a $100 fee is payable rather than the standard application fee if it considers that payment of the full fee would cause financial hardship to the person.

The fee payable to lodge an application in the Small Taxation Claims Tribunal must be paid in all circumstances.

ONE FEE PAYABLE

If two or more applications relate to the same applicant and may be conveniently heard before the Tribunal at the same time, the Tribunal may order that only one fee is payable for those applications.

REFUNDS

A person is entitled to a:

- full refund if they have paid an application fee that was not payable
- partial refund if they paid the standard application fee but were entitled to pay the $100 fee.

A person is also entitled to a partial refund if the person paid the standard application fee or the equivalent of a standard application fee and the Tribunal certifies that proceedings terminated in a manner favourable to the applicant. The refund amount is the difference between the application fee that was paid and $100. There is no refund if the person paid the reduced application fee or if their application was dealt with in the Small Taxation Claims Tribunal.

APPLICATION FEES IN 2013–14

In 2013–14 the Tribunal received $887,260 and refunded $367,590 in application fees.

Total revenue forgone on the basis that a person was eligible to pay a reduced fee or only one fee was payable for multiple applications lodged by the same person was $918,978 (see Tables A6.1, 6.2, 6.3).

The Tribunal refused nine applications to reduce the application fee on financial hardship grounds. There were eight applications to the Tribunal for review of decisions of this kind. The decision was set aside in four applications and affirmed (unchanged) in three applications. One application was withdrawn.
